

Mr Taufik Ahmed Farooq is the Director of Info-Comm & Media within Enterprise Singapore and concurrently a Director at Digital Industry Singapore. He leads the growth of local tech enterprises in a fast-moving global environment to capture new growth in forward-looking sectors.

Mr Taufik joined Spring Singapore in 2009 (merged with IE Singapore to form Enterprise Singapore) and served in various roles such as the Director of Strategic Planning, where he helped to formulate strategies and action plans across various departments/teams within Enterprise SG and as the Director of Innovation Infrastructure & Policy, where he fostered an environment conducive to innovation, creativity and technological advancement for local enterprises. His last role was the Director of Marine and Offshore where he drove the development of Offshore Wind as a new national strategic growth cluster.